

Thinking about staff requirements for 2023?
MSD has subsidies that could help!

Mana in Mahi: If you have a permanent position, leading into a NZQA recognised training pathway (min 60 credits), then you can get help with the cost of Training, Wages, etc.

- MSD offers employers up-to $16,000 in wage subsidies for Year 1
- Each agreement includes $8,000 in Course Fees which can be paid to employers towards course fees
- MSD also offers trainees up-to $3,000 in incentive payments for Year 1

Mana in Mahi is funding paid to employers to support their commitment towards training and sustainable employment. The employer is responsible for enrolling the employee into a training provider, guiding them through their assessments and course completion.

If you have a trainee in mind; please get in touch with MSD and include their Name, Date of Birth and Phone Number.

List your vacancy here at JobConnect: <https://www.workandincome.govt.nz/online-services/vacancy/index.html>
Or contact James McMillan (Canterbury Mana in Mahi Administrator): James.McMillan005@msd.govt.nz
James will put you in touch with the correct person in your region

Flexi-Wage: It's one of the ways Work and Income is supporting employers to get more people into work. It includes:

- Wage support of $276 per week is paid to an employer for 24 weeks
- Free recruitment service
- Training and education support up to $5000 can be redeemed towards ACOD Cert IV Optical Dispensing Course
- Go to: www.workandincome.govt.nz/flexiwage

NOTE: These subsidies are available for new employees, not existing staff
